

I realized I wasn't living my entire life fearless; I was only doing it with Roller Derby. This caused me to miss out on some amazing experiences and opportunities with my career because I let my insecurity and fear get in the way. I had a great job making good money with all the great benefits, but I was absolutely miserable. I wanted to leave, but I didn't have the courage to actually do it. I regret that I didn't make a change and do something sooner. I wasted so much time that I could have spent building my own business and doing something I loved and made me happy. Life is definitely different now. I have a new outlook on life and motto:

Do it Derby Style or don't do it at all! Also included in this book is information and interactive resources you can use to start living life and doing business Roller Derby Style.
